A LIBEL UPON OUR CITIZENS.

The Bangor Commercial continues to libel the good name of our city by asserting that "four-fifths of the people of the city" stand with it in its championship of the shameful defiance of the law on the part of the saloon keepers, and in the same article declares that it "is for what it deems for the best interest of the community always." We would like to have our contemporary inform us what interest of the city is subserved by the rum holes now prosecuting their unlawful and pernicious traffic in our midst. It has not and can not deduce a single argument in support of the implied assertion that Bangor is benefited by these law-breakers. The argument both from a moral and business stand point is all against it. Every lawful industry in our community pays tribute to a greater or less extent to this traffic, which in return does evil and evil only.

To say that the intelligent people of Bangor believe in the perpetuation of rum rule is an insult to their manhood and common sense, or would be if true. It is not true, however. Public sentiment in this city is in favor of the enforcement of the law, and however much the saloon keepers may fancy themselves so strongly entrenched that they can defy the law, they will find at no distant day that this sentiment will manifest itself with an irresistible force that will close their doors as tightly as it has already been demonstrated that the law is capable of doing when put into execution.

The contrast between that brief period of prohibition of the traffic and to-day is most marked. With the drunkard mills closed our streets were quiet and orderly at all times, even the Commercial bearing testimony to the fact that on the occasion of our recent celebration, with the city crowded with people, the police had comparatively little to do. What was done for ten days, or a fortnight, can be done for weeks, months and years and all that is necessary to bring about this condition of things is for the law and order loving people to refute the slander cast upon them by the champions of the saloon, and manifest to the authorities what we have claimed and believed to be the fact, namely, that they heartily and unanimously favor a suppression of this traffic.

Dangerous to Denounce Political Murders.

In copying an article from the New York World a day or two since, in which that paper indulged in some sharp criticism of the murderers of Col. Clayton, we took exception to certain statements calculated to show that the people of Arkansas wanted to see justice overtake the assassins. We could not reconcile such a desire on the part of the people with the singular apathy they had manifested toward the case. It now appears that instead of disentiment existing in favor of the apprehension of the criminals, the Bourbon spirit is so intense in that State that it is not only safe to murder Republicans, but the judge who denounced the crime on the bench has been forced to leave his home. Judge Cunningham presided over the fifth judicial district of Arkansas. He is a Democrat, but a fearless judge. At the April term of his court he charged the grand jury in the most emphatic manner. He said: "You will have to investigate the Clayton assassination, and whoever aided or abetted, by word or deed, in that cowardly butchery, should be dragged by the throat to justice." The whole charge was manly, courageous and righteous. It did not apologize or equivocate, but condemned the murder. It was an honor to Arkansas to have such an independent judge. But his fidelity to truth and justice was his doom. He has been obliged to flee from his Arkansas home and is now a citizen of Oklahoma. He is reported as saying to a friend that "he had to leave the country, or he would get killed, too." This does not look much like a public sentiment in favor of justice.

Says the Washington correspondent of the St. Louis Globe-Democrat: A. W. Lyman, who has been the Washington correspondent of the New York Sun for the past six years, has purchased the Helena (M. T.) Independent. The Independent is the organ of the Territorial Democracy, and Mr. Lyman, who has been on the staff of the Sun for the past fifteen years, is expected to start a "Hill and protection" boom among the Democrats in the Northwest.

The contest in the State of New York this year is over the effort of Governor Hill and the saloons to capture the Legislature so that the legislation may be in the interest of Tammany and the liquor traffic. That is the Democratic slate. The Republican struggle is to carry the Senate and Assembly by two-thirds to override Hill and his saloon vetoes. It is to be seen at a glance that whatever hope the Empire State has in enlightened progress and true advancement lies in the success of the Republican programme.

The Flood Relief Commission of Harrisburg, Pa., of which Gov. Beaver, of Pennsylvania, is chairman, in their report say that their expenditures for relief in the Conemaugh Valley aggregate thus far two million two hundred thousand dollars. The number of persons they have fed has ranged from a maximum of 31,950 to the present roll of 7,000. The number of claims presented, many of them representing the interests of families or dependent relatives, aggregate nearly 4,000. Four hundred portable houses and two hundred to be built on the spot are already contracted for.

A possibility exists that Millet's famous "L'Angelus" may yet come to this country by purchase. It is announced in a Paris dispatch that the Chamber of Deputies will not authorize the appropriation necessary to keep the painting in France, and that it will go to the American purchaser at the auction price—$110,000. To this must be added the duty of 30 per cent. in order to arrive at the value of the picture when it reaches this country. The duty will be $33,130, and the total cost $143,130.

There were nearly as many thousand dollars offered by the Governor of Mississippi for the arrest of two notorious prize fighters who travelled through and fought for hours in that State, as were offered by the Governor of Arkansas for the murderers of John M. Clayton, says the Boston Traveller. In both cases the officers failed to do the work of justice. The assassins of Arkansas and the bullies of the Northern States have no fear of having justice dealt out to them in a Southern State by the operations of law. Where a civilization is based on the idea that the shot-gun is the last resort of the Democratic white man, it is not to be expected that law and order has any show. Communities resting on lawlessness and disorder are not shining lights of peace and good will.

The Springfield Union pertinently remarks: "The Democratic organs which are so much disturbed over the appointment of Mrs. Morgan as private secretary to her husband, the Indian Commissioner, and of Mrs. Dr. Dorchester as assistant to her husband, the Superintendent of Indian Schools, never troubled themselves to denounce Indian Commissioner Oberly's appointment of his daughter as confidential secretary, and of several other relatives to various places in the Indian service. Gen. Black of the pension bureau put his mother-in-law into a good place and she is there still. Mr. Colman, the last Commissioner of Agriculture, installed 9 of his relatives in public office, and Commissioner Stocksleger of the land office worked 11 of the Stocksleger family into good places. The appointments of Mrs. Morgan and Mrs. Dorchester were very unobjectionable compared with some of the others mentioned."

The investigation into the manner in which the post-office at Newark, N. J., has been conducted reveals a most disgraceful condition of affairs, says the Philadelphia Press. It is claimed that the employes were not only assessed for the benefit of the Democratic Campaign Committee, but that trusted commissaries were placed at the polls to see that every employe voted the Democratic ticket last November. The holding of jollification meetings in the post-office building, for which kegs of beer were brought in and opened, is also alleged. Some full and some empty kegs were found in the cellar by the inspector when the investigation was made. Charges of grossly violating the civil service law and of retaining carriers on the force whose unfitness had been proved are also made against the postmaster. As he was appointed by Mr. Cleveland to succeed a one-armed veteran, it is probable that the New York Post will treat the matter as entirely beneath its notice.

MAINE NEWS.

OUR BAR HARBOR MELANGE.

Interesting Notes from the City by the Sea.

Enterprising Business People Making Fine Displays.

The Silly Canard Respecting Secretary Blaine.

Looking for the Arrival of Fine Yachts.

Cool Weather, and Woolen Wraps the Order of the Day.

[Special Correspondence Whig and Courier.]

BAR HARBOR, July 15. Business people have come to know their trade here, and now that the busy season will soon be upon them new invoices of stock are coming in daily. Portland Block, which owes its existence to Bangor push and money contains the handsomest stores in the city. Of these the clothing and gentlemen's general furnishing store of J. A. Robinson & Co., Bangor, which is in charge of Mr. Howard Nelson, makes a display not surpassed in any city in quality and taste of the stock, and the window arrangement is so artistic as to attract more than passing attention, with its its gay silk scarfs, its blazers and jellies silk jockey caps, which are one of the latest fads of the fair, both here and other fashionable resorts.

Then, too, the display is graced by the mere mention jacket in French flannels with fancy pockets and half way encroachments upon a masculine cutaway, which is now this season and which is also dubbed a blazer, though, one can scarcely credit it after being blinded almost by the vivid rich yellows and blues, which were run together in a manner to set one's teeth on edge.

The Porcupine Cafe of Mr. Fred Johnson is another Bangor establishment which reflects credit upon the town and the proprietor.

Mme Madame Ashe,

The Worth of Boston,

of other display of robes and imported dress goods at the Ketteridge establishment on Mt. Desert street and her rooms were crowded with ladies of fashion and tastes who are customers of Madame Ashe at home. Some strikingly beautiful silk adorned her counters, on a black moire ground alternating with a peculiar shade of green. The figure was a peculiar but exquisitely artistic combination of pinks, yellow and black in broad stripes, the pink and yellow stripes having a tracing of black down a velvet stripe. Madame Ashe was the first person to bring French dress goods and dresses to Bar Harbor, which she did in 1884 and 1885. Worth paid her a great compliment, and through her the artistic taste which is natural to American women, when upon asking who designed and fitted a costume she wore to travel, was told it was the work of her own hands, exclaimed, "Then why come here, stay in America and utilize American genius and taste."

The West End hotel register bare the name of F. A. Gebhardt, but it proved not to be the rich and naughty attachment of the Lounger, but a reputable man.

The Rumored Resignation of Secretary of State Blaine, which made its appearance in yesterday's New York Herald, proves to be an unfounded rumor. Mr. Walker Blaine, who ran up here from Washington to consult Mr. Blaine upon important matters relating to the State Department, when seen by THE WHIG reporter, positively denied the report, and said there was not the slightest foundation upon which to base such a rumor. He said that the first information they had of the matter was telegrams from personal friends and prominent journals inquiring as to the truth of the rumor. Mr. Blaine's health is very good and he is enjoying long needed rest, surrounded by his family. Walker Blaine left for Boston this afternoon, enroute to Washington. In the meanwhile, young man is beginning to show it, and small groups of him with his hair in his jaunty cap and scarling golf jacket are scattered here and there on the streets, usually distinctly outlining that the Rodick steps of Blaze Gorlin. We hope he will exert himself this summer and that we shall have match ball between the hotel men and the rest of us, and that some of the athletes who produce will get up a tournament as in the days of old days.

We are unable to tell just

have, but there is a strong impression that a great number will anchor here Wednesday evening. The weather continues cool to the disgust of those who have fitted out elaborate in their goods which they are aching to display. Woolen dresses and wraps are the order of the day, and the cold for fare which broke out in New York about the time Old Sol was beginning to make his rays effective, and gave strangers in that city the impression that most of the young ladies had gone daft, can be indulged in most comfortably.

Part of Col. Boothby's party left last night, while the rest tarried to see more of the beauties of this place.

A new feature in the literary world here is the establishment of a news stand at the Maine Central wharf, and here one finds the latest novel, the daily papers and cigars of the best brands. The enterprising proprietor of nearly paralyzed this community yesterday by rushing Boston Sunday papers in here at 4:35, having made the drive from Bangor in five hours.

Mr. Fred Moses, who has been a guest at the Grand Central, left for her home today.

Schooner yacht Marguerite, of the New York club, came in yesterday.

OF COURSE IT WAS A LIE.

Further Denials of the Report of Mr. Blaine's Resignation.

BAR HARBOR, July 15. The reported resignation of Secretary Blaine is positively and emphatically denied by Walker Blaine, who is here to consult with his father upon matters pertaining to the State Department. Mr. Blaine's health is said to be good by his friends who saw him daily.

FROM BIDDEFORD.

Bound Over for Keeping a Gambling House.

BIDDEFORD, July 15. Peter O'Brien, of Lewiston, at which place the Old Orchard gamblers' outfit was confiscated by Biddeford officers last week, was tried in the Biddeford municipal court today, and bound over to the September supreme court, giving bonds.

The Last Main Drive Arrived.

The river drivers arrived today with the last main drive. The recent rise in the water came just in time to assist in getting logs into the main boom. The drive contained over thirteen million feet, which added to the first drive, makes the total season's cut seventeen and one-half million feet, which, for Biddeford lumbermen, is the largest amount ever cut. The last drive is two weeks ahead of last season.

FIRE AT PARIS HILL.

Farm Buildings Burned.

NORWAY, July 15. The farm buildings of Wallace Cummings, near Paris Hill, were burned this afternoon. Loss $1,500; insured in the Grange Insurance Company. Cause unknown.

POSTMASTERS APPOINTED.

Additional for Towns in Maine.

WASHINGTON, July 15. The following fourth-class postmasters were appointed for Maine:

Patrick Hoges, Chelsea.

Charles A. Owen, Webster.

FROM PORTLAND.

New Corporation Organized.

PORTLAND, July 15. The Thompson European Electric Welding Company, organized here to-day at the office of D. W. Snow. Permanent officers will be chosen to-morrow.

THE McQUADE TRIAL.

Fulgraff Admits Swearing to Lies.

BALLSTON, N. Y., July 15. The McQuade trial was resumed this morning. Fulgraff's ordeal, under the searching questions of Judge Furshman, was a trying one. The greater part of the testimony this morning was in contradiction to former evidence given by him. Witness admitted having sworn to a lie on more than one occasion, and said he knew he was swearing falsely and committing perjury. This was upon the same matters upon which he was now testifying. He said "I did this for my own protection and the protection of others, so that I might not be punished and so the disgrace would not fall upon me and my family."

MARINE INTELLIGENCE.

Schooner Lost by Collision.

BOSTON, July 15. The schooner Bushrod W. Hill, of Boston, hence Saturday for Baltimore in ballast, was run into Sunday morning during a dense fog forty-miles northwest of Highland light by the Spanish steamer Frederico, Mutanzas for Boston. The schooner was struck just forward of her mizzen rigging on the starboard side, and cut down to the water's edge. The schooner began to fill rapidly and after attempting to tow her she capsized and the steamer had to abandon her. Capt. Newcombe and the crew of nine men were taken aboard the steamer and landed here. The Frederico was uninjured. The Hill was a three masted schooner and was built in Bath in 1872.

WHITE WINGS.

The Eastern Yacht Club Regatta.

MARBLEHEAD, Mass., July 15. The start in the annual regatta Eastern Yacht Club was made at 11.15. A driving northeast rainstorm prevails. There are twenty-eight entries, including four first class schooners and three second class. At 1 o'clock it was so foggy that yachts could not be seen.

The Merlin Wins.

The Merlin won, crossing the finish line at 2.35 p. m. The Mayflower was second, crossing at 2.37. In the special class Harbinger appears to be the winner. Kathleen and Saracen are about even. In the seventh class Romana seems to lead Hilda. It is almost too thick to see the finish.

The Merlin,

one of Burgess' latest designs, showed remarkable speed and soon after crossing the line passed the Sea Fox and Mayflower, closely followed by the Fortune. On board the Merlin was Edward Burgess. The Merlin gradually overhauled the Fortuna and soon was in the lead. After running out about twenty minutes, finding no stake boat Mr. Burgess concluded that no boat was put in position and the Merlin immediately put about and beat home, as did all the others, not finishing.

The second class, sailed over the same course, followed the Merlin and the race was declared off and will be sailed by first and second class boats to-morrow.

The fourth class yacht Clara had no competitors, having a walk over.

The fifth class had no finish.

Next Came the Forty-Footers.

The Gorilla was first to get away, Verona close at her heels, followed by Papoose, Minerva, Chiquita and Alice. The Verona soon overhauled Gorilla and held the lead nearly two thirds of the course, when Minerva showed her speed and began to close the gap, exhibiting remarkable windward work. The Minerva came to the finish line a winner.

The special class, Saracen, Kathleen, Beetle, Evelyn and fast cat-boat Harbinger contested. The Kathleen was first to get away, leading Saracen by a few seconds, and the latter soon went to the front. On the run home Harbinger ran close in shore but the the wash of the sea staying their progress. The Harbinger soon took the lead and won the race. In the seventh class Romana was the only starter and did not finish. There was plenty of wind over the whole course. Correct time, Min'ver 3.18.14; Gorilla 3.20.28; Chiquita 3.32.04; Verona 3.37.15. The Papoose did not finish. The Alice did not finish. Harbinger 3.37.56; Saracen 3.56.50; Kathleen 3.59.15. The winner of the Cambert cup, was the Minerva. The Saracen beats Kathleen a second time, tieing these racers.

NEW HAMPSHIRE.

Barnum's Agent and His Groceries.

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., July 15. Harry Cohen, advance agent of Barnum's circus, came to this city this morning for the purpose of purchasing groceries and meats for the show, which exhibits to-morrow. The grocers and provision dealers refused to supply the goods and he was obliged to go to Newburyport and purchase his supplies.

A New Judiciary System.

CONCORD, July 15. Representative Hodgdon, of Portsmouth, gave notice of a bill to establish a new judiciary system. The measure abolishes the Supreme Court, and established two new ones, a Supreme Judicial Court with a Chief Justice and two Associate Justices for the determination of questions of law and equity, and a Superior Court, with a Chief and four Associate Justices, for the trial of questions of fact. The salary of the Chief Justice of each court is fixed at $3,300, and each Associate Justice at $3,000.

MASSACHUSETTS.

Death of Osmyn Brewster.

BOSTON, July 15. Osmyn Brewster, former partner with the late Uriel Crocker, in the publishing and bookselling business in this city, died at his residence to-night, aged ninety-two. He was a member of the Massachusetts House of Representatives for five terms, in the Senate one term, Alderman three terms and served on the Board of Directors of public institutions. He was Treasurer of the Massachusetts Charitable Mechanics' Association over twenty-five years.

INTER-STATE COMMERCE.

Hearing of the Senate Committee in Chicago.

Beneficial Influence of Canadian Roads.

CHICAGO, July 15. The Senate Inter-State commerce committee resumed work to-day. They began with hearing a special committee of the Board of Trade. Secretary Stone read a report on questions submitted by the committee to the Board of Trade. The report says: Canadian lines of transportation in the United States affect the commercial interests of the United States favorably, as far as commerce is favorably affected by having open to it as many channels of trade as possible. It affects such interests by smashing pools and all traffic arrangements that have existed between such roads as the Michigan Southern and Michigan Central, by equalization of freights, to points in New England where American lines charged exorbitant rates under the Inter-State commerce law. The Grand Trunk line of Canada was trade, which, before they encouraged it, was continually discouraged by the American roads in the interests of their live stock trade and yard commissioners. Traffic originating in the United States which naturally belongs to American roads is not diverted from them by Canadian roads except in case of perishable goods. The Canadian lines were among the first to build and operate transfer elevators here for the preservation, identity and weighing of grain in hopper scales, as required by the law of the States, which law is now openly defied by some of the American lines centering here. The Canadian lines won a large share of this business from the West by such and kindred measures, by uniformly just and equitable and not by favoritism to one shipper over another. We do not consider any additional legislation necessary. This committee would recommend the enforcement of the Inter-State commerce act, and such laws as pertain to the bonded regulations of United States products passing over the great commercial highways of Canada as will allow them to pass untrammelled in the future as in past. The adoption of any legislative action calculated to restrict the transportation facilities now enjoyed by all, will, in the opinion of the committee, bury in impenetrable oblivion the party that accomplished it. The committee suggested additional legislation to make it unlawful for railway corporations to combine for the formation of railway associations or railway trust of any description, believing they destroy competition and evade the law.

Treatment of Patrons,

Causes a Sensation.

This statement appeared to come unexpectedly to the committee and created somewhat of a sensation. They immediately abandoned, temporarily, the consideration of the relations with Canada to develop the board of trade idea of traffic associations and pools. Said Senator Hiscock: "The attitude of the Board of Trade of this city is a considerable of a surprise to me. The consensus of public opinion, among railroad men and shippers, particularly in Boston, in these associations and traffic agreements, is the only Solution of the Present Complication.

I would like to ask whether the denunciatory sentences in your report are a deliberate opinion or merely rhetorical." The committee evidently did not anticipate this turn of affairs and evaded an immediate answer on the pretext that they did not understand that they were present to consider the question of pools. Individual members of the committee were examined and from each was elicited the strongest opposition to any traffic agreement of differentials, on the ground that it prevented free competition.

The committee finished its work this afternoon and left for the East, with the exception of Chairman Cullom.

BEEF FOR THE BRITONS.

Heavy Exports of Cattle Arranged for.

CHICAGO, July 15. Arrangements are completed for the exportation of an unusually large number of cattle within the next three or four months. Nelson Morris, a heavy cattle dealer of this city, has secured all the vacant room on all outgoing steamers from New York for Liverpool, Glasgow and London, for two or three months. J. L. Hathaway, of Boston, and his syndicate have engaged all the room on the steamers of the Warren Line, from Boston, for July, August and September, and Meyer Goldsmith, of New York, has engaged the same line for October. Nearly all of these cattle will be sent forward from here, but some will go from Kentucky. The reason of the heavy export movement is the low price here, shortage of the European cattle crop and consequent high prices there. Export rates are very much dearer than a year ago.

SEVERE WEATHER.

Unusually Severe Northeast Gale.

HIGHLAND LIGHT, MASS., July 15. An unusually severe northeast gale, for this season, with rain, prevails to-night. The sea is rough and several small yachts were off this point when the storm began. Navigation will be dangerous for small vessels for the next twenty-four hours.

A SENSATIONAL CASE.

A Woman Claims to Have Been Married in a Cab.

She Causes a Young Lady's Arrest on Charge of Conspiracy.

MONTREAL, July 15. In March last, Miss Mulcahy, of this city, created a great sensation by alleging that she was married in a cab to a man named Husson, who died almost immediately after the ceremony. Husson's body and all connected with the affair, except herself, mysteriously disappeared. Subsequently she swore out a warrant for the arrest of Matthew Huntley and an unknown woman, who, she alleged, resembled herself, on the charge of threatening her with death if she did not don widow's weeds and declare herself Husson's widow. No arrest under the warrant was made until Saturday when Miss Mulcahy was met in the street here by a young lady named Tibbitts, of Fredericton, N. B., who declared to the police that

She Was the Unknown Woman.

Miss Tibbetts was arrested and taken to an out-of-the-way station where an unsuccessful effort was made to exhort a confession from her. Friends did not discover her whereabouts till Sunday afternoon, when bail was immediately provided. The case will come up tomorrow, when an alibi will be established by Miss Tibbitts' friends. Miss Tibbitts graduated a month ago from the University of New Brunswick with the degree of B.A. and the Governor General's gold medal. She was going to visit friends in Boston, Montreal, Quebec and Duluth when arrested. The treatment she received has excited the greatest indignation.

River and Harbor Improvements.

Reports of the United States engineer officers, in charge of the river and harbor improvements, received at the war department, show the following estimates of appropriations necessary for the prosecution of the work, next year; Bullanny river, N. H., $18,000; York Harbor, Me., $15,000; Saco river, Me., $65,000; Channel Back Cove, Portland, Harbor, $50,000; other harbor improvements in Portland, $65,000; Kennebec river, $150,000; Rockland Harbor, Me., $175,000; Rockport Harbor, Me., 85,000; Moosabec Bar, Me., $25,000; Little Harbor, N. H., $75,000.

The Alien Contract Labor Law.

A number of perplexing questions have been presented to the Treasury department in regard to the enforcement of the alien contract labor law, so far as it applies to persons employed in this country who reside just across the Canadian and Mexican borders. A Complaint is lodged against an officer of the Bank of Vermont, near the Canadian border line, who has a residence in Canada and has crossed the border line to his business nearly every day for the past forty years. It is charged that his employment is in contravention to the contract labor law. Complaint has also been made against the practice of allowing Mexican and Canadian laborers to enter the United States territory for days' work. These matters are all under investigation.

LABOR MATTERS.

An Increase of Wages.

Strikers Resume Work.

WESTBORO, Mass., July 15. The workmen at Geo. B. Brigham's Sons' shop, who have been on a strike for the past three weeks, resumed work today by order of the local assembly, K. of L., which acted on the advice of the State board of arbitration. The help returns to work at the old wages and the firm agrees to settle differences with the men individually or by arbitration.

No Changes in the Wage Scale.

BELLAIRE, Ohio, July 15. Reliable information received from the Flint glass workers national convention indicates that there will be no important changes in the wage scale this year and no trouble is apprehended.

VERMONT.

Medical Department Commencement.

BURLINGTON, July 15. The thirty-sixth annual commencement of the Medical Department of the University of Vermont was held this evening at the Howard Opera House, which was filled to its utmost capacity. The exercises opened with music and prayer by Rev. Dr. Edward Hawes. President Matthew H. Buckham, of the University, conferred the degree of A. B., upon Dr. A. P. Grinnell, dean of the Medical College. This was followed by awarding prizes, reading of the names of honor men by Dr. Grinnell, and valedictory, delivered by Willard C. Thompson, of New York. Ex-Minister Edward J. Phelps was introduced and spoke three-quarters of an hour. He made an eloquent appeal to young physicians to put every effort of which they are capable into their profession and make it the work of their lives.

STUFF AND NONSENSE.

Is What the President Characterizes Blaine's Reported Resignation.

BALTIMORE, July 15. The Sun's Deer Park special says: The President denies in the most emphatic terms the reported resignation of Secretary Blaine. He characterizes the rumor as stuff and nonsense. Mr. Blaine will probably visit Deer Park before the President's visit terminates. The President may run up to Bar Harbor before the season closes.

The logs of the West Branch drive were cut away at North Twin dam, Saturday forenoon, and sluicing was commenced early in the afternoon. About three days will be required to sluice the logs, and it is expected that the rear of the drive will leave the dam to-morrow morning. The drive is making good progress.

Blasting will be commenced this week for the foundation for the new hotel which is to be erected at Dark Harbor, Long Island, and it is understood that the work is to go along briskly. The hotel is to be a fine one, and its situation is excellent. It will be built by Philadelphia gentlemen who own a large amount of land upon the island. The wharf in front of the site of the hotel is now being constructed.

Mr. T. H. Wyman, of Sebec, has given his new steam launch a trial trip, which proved highly satisfactory. [illegible] is [illegible]

It is expected that the East Branch drive will be running into the boom today, as the latest reports from the drive indicate that it is probable that it could be done at that time. It will take a day or two to clean up the rear of the drive. The third Mattawamkeag drive is with the East Branch drive. The East Branch has proceeded somewhat under difficulties, but has made a good run, nevertheless.

It is thought that at the present time there is more coal in vessels in this harbor, being discharged, or waiting to be, than ever before at any one time. An unusually large number of coal cargoes have arrived in the last few days. Several cargoes are also on the way here. The dealers are laying in their stocks for the fall and winter, as it is the most favorable time at present, and it is a busy place about the coal yards.

Nelson and Aubino were brought to Sunnyside after their races last week, and showed their delight at getting into their own stalls in an unmistakable manner. On starting out for the eastern circuit, Mr. Nelson said, "We hope to come back with some of the honors, but if not, we'll have the satisfaction of having done the best we could."—Waterville Mail.

After a sojourn in St. John of about six months, Miss Rosalie Blanchard, the talented elocutionist, formerly of this city, took her departure for Boston by steamer, Friday. She has instructed classes in St. Stephen and Calais as well as St. John, and she leaves with a number of tokens from her pupils, as evidence of the value of her services. She has received a very flattering invitation to return to Calais next season.

A party of about sixty members of the Second Baptist Sunday School had a very pleasant excursion to Bucksport last night on the steamer Castine. The sail upon the river was much enjoyed, and the return was made at 12 o'clock. Refreshments were served during the evening. Much credit is due the committee of arrangements, Lewis Orr, W. E. Gammons, and Henry Bickner.

The Maine Real Estate and Investment Company has been organized in this city with a capital stock of $100,000; paid in $1,000; par value of shares, $10. Work is particularly brisk at the Maine Central shops in Waterville this summer; the usual amount of repairing and considerable new work is being done. In the freight department, a lot of one hundred flat cars, are being built, which they are working off at the rate of two a day. Two second class passenger cars, and a number of workmen's cars have been built this season. A new shifting engine is being constructed in the machine shop.

BURNED BY LIGHTNING. During the thunder storm Sunday morning which appears to have been wide spread, much damage ensued, of which reports are continually coming in. Among others reported is the large barn belonging to John Fleming, of Chester, which was struck by lightning and burned, together with his entire hay crop, which he had just got into his barn. The amount of his loss is placed at $1,000, with no insurance, writes our Winn correspondent.

TEMPERANCE LECTURE. A Lincoln correspondent writes: Lieutenant Howe delivered an able and forcible lecture in the M. E. Church, Sunday evening, to a large audience from "The Gutter to the Pulpit." He held the attention of the audience for one hour and a half. Mr. Howe is an earnest speaker, and an indefatigable worker for the cause of temperance. At the close of the lecture, many came forward to sign the pledge. During his series of lectures ninety-five have signed the pledge. Tears of gladness could be seen on the faces of the mothers and daughters as the fathers and husbands signed the pledge. May great success crown the labors of the speaker.

CHAUTAUQUA ASSEMBLY. The exercises of the Ocean Park Chautauqua Assembly commence at Ocean Park, Old Orchard, July 25, and the programmes have just been issued. The order of exercises include lectures on all branches of religion and education by prominent speakers. Study of the Bible to all its points, a school of methods for teachers in the public schools and literary and musical entertainments by some of the finest artists in New England. The exercises close August 10th with a grand farewell meeting and excursions to Camp Ellis, Saco river and Biddeford Pool. Mr. E. E. Davis, of Augusta, is Secretary of the Association.

NEW ENGLAND Y. M. C. A. The Secretarial Institute of the New England Y. M. C. A. Association will hold their summer encampment this year at North Lubec, from August 10th to 25th. This body, which is composed of the secretaries of the New England associations, propose having an excursion to St. John on Tuesday, August 20th, by the I. S. S. Co.'s steamer. They will be met at the steamer by a committee from the St. John association, and be entertained by them during their visit. Arrangements are being made to hold a public meeting during the visit of the institute. There will be several good speakers in the party, prominent among whom will be Mr. Geo. S. Avery of Boston, a well known Y. M. C. A. worker.

GENERAL CATALOGUE OF BOWDOIN COLLEGE. We have received from Prof. George W. Little, Librarian of Bowdoin College, with his compliments, the first general catalogue of the college, printed in English. It is a book of 176 pages, and is thoroughly and carefully compiled. It gives the date and place of birth, also, when necessary, of death, the residence and occupation and the academic degree of every graduate. It is expected that either a new edition of the catalogue or a list of living alumni, with their post-office addresses, will be issued in 1894. The catalogue shows that the college was incorporated in 1794; instruction commenced in 1802; the first class was graduated in 1806; the medical school was organized in 1820, and the first medical class was graduated in 1821. A list of the officers of government and instruction from the beginning is given. The summary shows that the whole number of graduates is 3,918; deceased, 1,691; living, 2,224. The catalogue is a valuable reference book.

WALTHAMS VS. BANGORS. The new Bangor team will make its bow to the base ball enthusiasts in this city this afternoon at the Maplewood, when the Walthams will be the opposing nine. The Walthams got in some good practice at the grounds yesterday, and appear like a team of good ball players. Among the players are Dos and Cotter, the two well-known polo players. The former will occupy the box and the latter the right [illegible] Both [illegible] will be [illegible] Bangor [illegible] the other [illegible] in the [illegible]

The following vessels have arrived in this port since Sunday with cargoes: Schooners Zacheus Sherman, with 1,152 tons of coal for the Maine Central Railroad; Frank Pratt Lee, with 860 tons for the Maine Central Railroad; Clara E. Colford, with 791 tons for Bacon, Robinson & Co.; July Fourth, with 232 tons to F. H. Noble; M. B. Mahoney, with 242 tons for T. G. Stickney & Co.; Annie R. Lewis, with 252 tons for A. R. Babcock; George B. Ferguson, with cement to A. R. Hopkins, and the schooners Cora Dunn, Georgie L. Dickson and Bertram L. Townsend to load ice.

NEW HOME FOR ORPHANS. The new Industrial Home is located at South China, some ten miles from the city of Waterville and about the same distance from Augusta on the stage road leading from Augusta to Belfast. The object of the Mission is to extend a helping hand to orphan boys and train them for Home Mission work. The Home and Mission will be supported partially by produce raised on the farm. The Home is being furnished by philanthropic friends interested in destitute children. Rev. J. H. Wilson and wife, who are connected with the Mission, are soliciting aid from friends in Bangor and will be glad to receive contributions for the Home.

A HORSE BADLY CUT. A reporter of THE WHIG saw at the Windsor House stables yesterday afternoon a horse which is under treatment for a terrible cut, received under singular circumstances. The horse belongs to D. Sargent's Sons, of Brewer, and on Friday last was engaged in hauling hay. When coming down a steep hill the pole of horses, of which this was one, were unable to hold the load, and the driver turned them to one side, running them into some bushes. On one of the bushes hung a scythe, which had been left there by a workman, and this striking the horse in the breast made a wound of over a foot in length and six or seven inches in depth. The horse was brought to this city and placed under the care of a veterinary surgeon, who dressed the wound and it is now in fair progress of healing. It is a wonder that the animal did not bleed to death.

ANNIVERSARY CONCERT. There was an anniversary concert at the First Christian Church last Sunday evening for which the following programme was given: Organ Voluntary, Miss Clara Greeley; responsive exercises, by the pastor, Rev. T. P. Humphrey, and school; song, by the children, All Together; exercise, Our Father, by eleven little girls; duet, Only a Message from Home, Mrs. Leathers and Miss Maud Gulliver; recitation, A Kindly Deed, Alice Humphrey; recitation, Little Temples, Lizzie Small; song, Something for the Children to Do, Mr. Hasselline with chorus by the children; exercise, Little Soldiers, seven boys and two girls; temperance selection read by Miss Rayner; solo, I Along the Cross Must Bear, Miss Barbara Henry; reading, The New Fangled Choir, Mrs. Leathers; recitation, The Children's Hour, Gertie Newcomb; responsive song, We Love To Sing Together, the little boys and girls; recitation, Sowing and Reaping, Maud Malley; exercise, Feed My Lambs, eleven little girls, with responsive chant by the choir; solo, Rocked in the Cradle of the Deep, Mr. Horace Greeley; secretary's report, which showed a marked increase in the standing of the school; reading, A Stylish Church, Mrs. Mills; treasurer's report, which showed the school to be in good financial condition; quartette, There's a Song In My Heart. After the programme a collection was taken by Hattie Davis, Gracie Phillips, Lizzie and Annie Small. The exercises of the evening were closed with the singing of Zion by the school. The floral display was very beautiful, and the children deserve much credit for the able manner in which the programme was carried out.

SEA BREEZES

Bring the News from Islesboro and Castine.

Those who visit the hotel "Johnson's-by-the-Sea" at Islesboro, conducted by Mr. J. W. Witheo, are well pleased with the accommodations and at the present time there is a good number of guests, among whom Mr. Witheo is very popular. Mr. Witheo has just erected a large windmill to pump the water from the two artesian wells into the house, giving the hotel a good supply of pure water. The drainage system is also a good one. A new feature at the hotel this season is that no Sunday excursions will be allowed to land at the wharf, as it is the intention of the company that the guests shall be free from that annoyance. The place promises to be a popular resort for those who are in search of quietness and rest.

The following list comprises the guests at the hotel over Sunday, and also those who are there on an extended visit: E. C. Nichols wife and child; H. H. Fogg and wife; Gen. J. S. Smith and daughter; C. L. Snow, wife and child; Mrs. A. H. Lancaster; Capt. H. G. Curtis; Capt. W. B. Blanchard; G. Irving Rice; Ruel Smith; Mrs. T. J. Cole; J. Waterman and family; Mrs. C. V. Crossman; C. K. Adams; Roy R. E. Peck and family, of this city; J. N. Wood and wife, of Lewiston; Miss Florence Mack, Miss Addie Gale, J. W. Hartwell, Charles Burrell, A. G. Hunt and wife, Miss Belle Laisell, Edward Beattie, J. E. Chamberlain, C. J. McIntire, Charles Miller, M. V. Thompson, of Boston; Mrs. L.

GRATEFUL—COMFORTING.

Epps' Cocoa,

BREAKFAST.

"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavored beverage which may save us many heavy doctors bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to withstand every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack whenever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame." Civil Service Gazette.

Made simply with boiling water or milk. Sold only in packets, labelled thus, by Grocers, in 1lb. and ½lb. tins.

Short Cuts.

Georgia expects to beat her record on peaches this year.

A sunflower stalk at Orange, Cal., has blossoms that measure two feet in diameter.

Jones, who is engaged to an heiress, calls her Economy, because she is the road to wealth.

An immigrant who recently landed at Castle Garden had with her a 16 months' old baby which weighed 68 pounds.

Since the year 1871, the emigration from Germany has comprised 1,769,207 persons, of whom 1,618,816 came to this country.

The Maple Sugar Exchange at Brattleboro, Vt., has handled 1225 gallons of syrup and 21,600 pounds of sugar this season.

The enterprising bootblack hangs out the card: "Boots blacked yellow." He has a sort of mayponaise dressing for the russet shoes.

Three boys of Jackson, Mich., recently saved a girl from drowning and the grateful father gave them five cents, telling them to divide it between them.

During the fiscal year just completed 302,939,901 pieces of ordinary mail matter were delivered through the lock boxes and by carriers from the New York post office.

"Is there anything I can do for you?" asked Mrs. Cumso, tenderly, when her husband was suffering from seasickness. "What do you want?" "I want the earth," gasped Cumso, as he again leaned over the rail.

The growth of the G. A. R. organization during the last five years, as shown by the consolidated reports, has been as follows, the figures indicating only the members in good standing: March 31, 1885, 269,694; March 31, 1886, 295,337; March 31, 1887, 320,046; March 31, 1888, 354,216; March 31, 1889, 375,539.

A thief who practiced hypnotism has been arrested in England. His custom was to enter a shop, make a purchase of some trifle, and put down a copper in payment. Then the mesmerizing process was brought into requisition, and the shopkeeper took up the copper and handed out change for a sovereign, which the rogue quickly pocketed.

Mr. David Kimball Pearsons, of Chicago, has given $100,000 to Beloit College; $100,000 to Lake Forest University; $50,000 to Knox; $50,000 to Chicago Theological Seminary; $50,000 to the Presbyterian Seminary; $50,000 to the Presbyterian Hospital; $30,000 to the Young Men's Christian Association, and $20,000 to the Women's Board of Foreign Missions, besides $250,000 in various other ways and in smaller sums.

The ex-Empress Eugenie is about seventy years of age, but those who have seen her recently say that there is still the old fascination in her manner, and the same girlish grace about her slender figure. The entire furnishings of Camden Place, Park at Chislehurst, Kent, where the ex-Empress lived while in England, were recently sold, owing to the death of the owner, Nathaniel Strode, who lent the place furnished to the late Emperor Napoleon III. for eleven years.

The celebrated Kong mountains of Africa, are about to follow the mountains of the Moon, which have been expunged from the map, says the Philadelphia Times. These mountains were supposed to be stretched across Africa, for ten degrees of longitude about 200 miles north of the gulf of Guinea. Captain Binger, who has now returned from nearly two years of explorations in the almost unknown region north of the gulf of Guinea, says there is no such range as the Kong mountains.

Russet leather shoes at present are all the rage, says the Shoe and Leather Review, being universally worn by old men and matrons, young men and maidens, dignified clergymen, natty young stockbrokers, solid men of affairs and the young pleasure-seekers around town. There is no longer any question as to their being the proper thing to wear. All the houses handling the stock are working day and night, in many instances, to supply these orders, and some have had to drop everything else to meet the unprecedented demand.

George Clark, who died at Richfield Springs on Tuesday, was a famous landlord, and the last of the "patroons" who once owned and controlled the great Clarke estate. The family in manners respects resembled that of the Van Rensselaers, the former patroons of Albany and Rensselaer counties, and the death of Mr. Clarke marks the complete obliteration of the old semifeudal patroon system, though for many years it had practically no existence, so far as actual power was concerned. George Clarke at one time possessed 70,000 acres of land.

Mr. Charles Dekay, in his paper in the latest number of Harper's Weekly, on American stained glass, says: American workmen may be safely said to stand at the head of this fine branch of art, but it would be wrong to conceal some of their weaknesses. They do not study in all cases the position of the window, and very commonly they compose without reference to the architecture of the building. Trinity Church, Boston, sins in this regard. The glowing, magnificent windows by John LeFarge, in the west transept, and to the right as the nave is entered, do not belong where they are; they should be in the apse.

An odd fact recently came to light at the registration of the birth of a child at Paris. The father was asked the maiden name of his wife, to which he answered, "Rose B." "Well, how do you spell it? Bee, By, Bay, or how?" "Just simply B." "That cannot be, B is only an initial, not a name." "It is all the name my wife ever had until she married me." Neither she nor any of her family have ever had any other name than just B, neither more nor less." They could hardly have told less, and an examination of the records showed that they had really never had more. Beyond doubt the B family bears the shortest name in France, perhaps in the world. Only one other name of equal brevity is known, and that is the name of a place about fifteen miles from Peronne, on the Ham line, there is a commune known as X. It has some 200 inhabitants. The origin of the name of X is unknown, and it would be curious to investigate the origin of the patronymic of the B family.

Tried A Life Preserver.

PASSENGER ON A FERRY BOAT CREATES A SENSATION.

A man created a sensation on a Delaware ferry boat the other day, says the Philadelphia Inquirer, by reaching under the seats of the cabin, taking out one of the hundreds of the life preservers there and proceeding with the utmost deliberation to put it on.

"What's the matter?" asked one excited man. "Is the boat sinking?" Dozens looked around, saw the man make preparations to save himself, and were thrown into a fever of excitement. There had been no alarm, so they then cooled off again and began to think the man insane. But he was perfectly cool and apparently sane enough. He went right on without the slightest attention to anybody's questions or excitement, to fasten the life preserver on. When he got it on he looked at it, seemed satisfied with his survey of himself, and then just as deliberately took it off, put in its former place and sat down again. He had made everybody around uneasy, though he looked as cool as a cucumber he been younger.

An old lumber man who happened to be sitting near gave him a quizzical look, which prompted him to say: "You think I'm a fool? Well, I had never put on a life preserver until this minute and never knew how. Every time I boarded a boat I felt ashamed of my ignorance, which might cost me my life, and I had made up my mind to try it. There is a stock of life preservers. There are fifty people on the boat. I'll bet my hat (here he began to increase his tone until the whole cabin could hear) that not five in the fifty know how to put one on." He ceased, and looked around. No one took him up. He resumed reading his paper.

KISSED ANOTHER MAN'S WIFE.

"You scoundrel!" yelled young Jacob Green.

At his good neighbor, Brown.—"You kissed my wife upon the street.—I ought to knock you down."

"That's where you're wrong," good Brown replied.

In accents mild and meek;
"I kissed her, that I've not denied,
But kissed her on the cheek—and I did it because she looked so handsome—the very picture of beauty and health. What is the secret of it?" "Well," replied Green, "since you ask it, I will tell you; she uses Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. I accept your apology. Good night." "Favorite Prescription" is the only remedy for the delicate derangements and weaknesses of females. Sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee of giving satisfaction in every case, or money paid for it returned.

For biliousness, sick headache, indigestion, and constipation, take Dr. Pierce's Pellets.

"I cannot praise Hood's Sarsaparilla half enough," says a mother whose son, almost blind with scrofula, was cured by this medicine.

DYSPEPSIA.

Makes the lives of many people miserable, and often leads to self-destruction. We know of no remedy for dyspepsia more successful than Hood's Sarsaparilla. It acts gently, yet surely and efficiently, tones the stomach and other organs, removes the faint feeling, creates a good appetite, cures headache, and refreshes the burdened mind. Give Hood's Sarsaparilla a fair trial. It will do you good.

Mr. J. R. GRINSTEAD, Senora, Ky., says: My children have sometimes had boils and other signs of blood impurities, with loss of appetite, etc., at which times I have found Swift's Specific a most successful remedy, in no instance failing to effect a speedy and permanent cure.

SWIFT'S SPECIFIC is a great blessing to humanity, says Mr. P. L. Gordon, of 725 Broad street, Nashville, Tenn., after it cured me of rheumatism of a very bad type, with which I had been troubled for three or four years. S. S. S. cured me after I had exhausted everything else.
